ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at the usual rates.

The Times, published in the city of Mexico, gives a list of the late Confederates who have taken refuge in the Mexican Empire. Among those from Virginia are Major-General J. Bankhead Magruder, who arrived there on the 5th of August; Lieutenant M. F. Maury, who got there June 1st; I. Reed (now in San Louis Potosi) and J. J. Gaenslen. From Missouri there are Lieutenant-General Sterling Price, General J. O. Shelby, Senator Trustin Polk, Heber Price, Senator Wood and family, H. D. Chiles and family, Governor T. C. Reynolds, and forty-four others. From Tennessee are ex-Governor Isham G. Harris and C. M. Wilcox. From North Carolina are J. Brown and Alfred Mordecai. From Louisiana are ex-Governor Allen, Mr. Perkins, and six others. From Texas, ex-Governor E. Clark, H. P. Bee, and fifteen others. Alameda is represented by D. Leadbetter and Frank Moore. Kentucky by W. Preston (since gone to Canada), Richard Taylor and B. H. Lyon. Mississippi and South Carolina have one representative each—Mr. O'Bannon being the delegate from the "Palmetto State." There are ninety-seven in all. The Times, speaking of the report that General Price had entered the military service of Maximilian, says:

"For information to all concerned, we here state that General Price has no hostile intentions against the United States of America. He came to Mexico as an exile, seeking for himself and family a home; for he had every reason to believe that he would not be permitted to live quietly in his own State. His Majesty the Emperor has appointed Senor Price an agent to examine lands for colonization purposes. In company with Senor Perkins, late of Louisiana, and Senor Harris, late of Tennessee, he is now at Cordova, in the State of Vera Cruz, actively engaged in the duties assigned him."

The Mobile Tribune has a letter dated New Orleans the 5th, giving a detailed account of the Democratic Convention held in that city. The writer says "the platform adopted was the high-toned, manly Southern doctrine of State rights, repudiating the Constitution of 1862, and maintaining the right of petition for compensation for the loss of slaves. The utmost harmony prevailed until the adjournment sine die took place at the close of the Convention. Mr. Overall a member of the Committee on the Platform, introduced a resolution requesting President Johnson to release Jefferson Davis and restore him to citizenship."

Mr. Overall commenced speaking from his place on the floor of the hall, but the Convention soon got wind of his object, and cries, "Get on the platform," "We can't hear you," were shouted over the house. "Mounting the platform, the speaker continued his speech amid thundering applause. The members rose from their seats and came forward. The wildest excitement was apparent, and the preamble and resolutions were passed with thundering unanimity. So eager was the Convention to pass the resolution that it would not listen to a few remarks from a gentleman who arose to second the measure, and so this proceeding for Mr. Davis closed the proceedings of one of the largest bodies of men I have ever seen assembled in convention."

We heartily concur with the Richmond Whig in its efforts to urge upon President Johnson the propriety of withdrawing the military from this State, as he has just done in regard to Kentucky. "We assured him, and we repeat the assurance with additional emphasis, that there is no disloyalty in this good old Commonwealth, and consequently no occasion for the prolongation of military rule within her borders. The people of Virginia unreservedly accept all the legitimate results of the war, and intend to support in perfect good faith the Constitution and Laws of the land. Why, then, should they not be at once restored to the exercise and enjoyment of civil authority?"

Preparations were being completed on Wednesday last, at Nashville, for the execution of Champ Ferguson. His wife and daughter were expected there on that day to visit him on the only remaining occasion that an interview would be permitted.

LARGE GOVERNMENT SALE OF TIM- BER, LUMBER, AND ABATTIS IN THE DISMANTLED PORTS AROUND WASHINGTON CITY.

HQ'RS. CHIEF ENGINEER OF DEFENCES,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 23, 1865.

SEALED PROPOSALS are invited, and will be received at these headquarters, until MONDAY, 23d of OCTOBER, at 12 M., for the purchase of the abattis around the several forts and batteries hereinafter named; and also for the timber, lumber, and other materials
within the several forts and batteries, viz:

SOUTH SIDE OF THE POTOMAC.

Fort Marcy and batteries north of Pimmet
Run, Forts Bennet, Haggerty, Woodbury,
Cass, Albany, Scott, Jackson, Runyon, Berry,
and batteries between Forts Craig and Berry,
and at the crossing of the Columbia turnpike.
Fort Barnard and its exterior battery and magazine. Forts Reynolds, Garesche, Williams, and the two batteries to the east and west of this fort. The two batteries in the valley of Hunting Creek, and Fort Willard and its exterior batteries.

Also six (6) blockhouses—three at the south end of the Aqueduct bridge—one at the Leesburg turnpike, and two in the valley of Hunting Creek.

Also, the Stockade across the south end of the Aqueduct bridge, and the abattis across the valley of Four-mile run.

ACROSS THE EASTERN BRANCH.

Forts Snyder, Ricketts, Wagner, Davis, Meigs, Chaplin, and the two new forts on the right and left of it.

Also, the Block-house and Stockade at the Navy-Yard bridge.

NORTH OF WASHINGTON.

Forts Jamieson, Thayer, Morris, Saratoga,
Bunker Hill, Slemmer, DeKussy, Smeade,
Kearny, Rossell, Gaines, Bayard, Simmons, Mansfield, and the field batteries adjacent to these forts.

Also, the following river batteries, viz:—
Vermont, Martin Scott, Kemble, Parrott, and
the two field batteries on the bank of the river.

Also, the Block-house and Stockade on the Washington Aqueduct road, near Fort Sumner.

The abattis around the several forts and batteries is made of the tops of trees, and is suitable for firewood.

The timber frame work and heavy log roofing of the bomb-proofs, guard-houses, magazines, and implement-rooms, is of hard wood—
oak, chestnut, and cedar—is generally in good condition, and may be removed without much labor.

The lumber with which many of these buildings are lined is sound, and may be used for fencing or any other purpose to which common cullings are usually applied.

The stockades are of hard wood posts, from nine (9) to twenty (20) inches in diameter, and generally about thirteen (13) feet long. This timber is very valuable, and may be easily removed.

The revetments consist either of posts, from five (5) to eight (8) feet long, and from five (5)
to nine (9) inches in diameter; or of white pine cullings, and will be valuable for fencing.

Separate proposals will be received for the abattis, and for the timber, lumber, and other materials in each fort and battery above named.

Proposals to be endorsed as follows, viz:

"Proposals for Abattis at Fort—"
"Proposals for Timber, Lumber, &c., at Fort—"

and addressed to the undersigned.

Proposals for the Abattis by the cord, or running foot, or for timber or lumber by the foot, will not be entertained. The bidders should offer so much for the Abattis of each Fort, and so much for the timber and other material in each Fort, in the gross.

The undersigned reserves the right to reject
any of the proposals, if deemed to the interest of the Government to do so.

Payments to be made in Government funds
upon the acceptance of any proposal, and prior to the removal of the property.

Purchasers will be required to remove their property within thirty (30) days after their proposals are accepted.

For further information, inquire at the office of the Chief Engineer of Defences, corner of Nineteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue.

B. S. ALEXANDER,
Brevet Brig. Gen., U. S. A.
Chief Engineer of Defences.
